Equipping you for ministry with children and young people

Children
& Youth

The Children and Youth Department has been mandated to deliver three integrated ministry essentials: Mission, Discipleship and Leadership.

Leadership

Equipping and empowering children's and youth leaders of all ages to enhance their communities and our world.

Discipleship

Equipping and inspiring children and young people to become passionate followers of Jesus Christ.

Mission

Engaging with children and young people and the issues that affect them in their community.

These three essentials underpin the CY Strategic Framework, which is rooted in The Salvation Army's mission and vision.

Strategic Framework

Our Vision	Fullness of life with Jesus for all young people
What does fullness of life mean to young people?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identity - Purpose - Belonging
Mission and how will this be lived out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To share the good news - To nurture disciples of Jesus - To seek justice and reconciliation - To serve others without discrimination - To care for creation By being an incarnational presence in their lives
How will this be lived out	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Living right - Treating others right - Making the world right
Outcome	Leaders and young people who are disciples of Jesus in our tradition of social change and justice  Love God Love Others

Discover a range of resources designed to inspire children and young people to become passionate followers of Jesus.

CY resources and programmes have been developed to equip, enable and empower children's and youth leaders as well as children and young people to think and talk about God, equipping them to serve their communities and make a difference in the world.
