BLACK HISTORY MONTH COLOURING

The last of our Black History Month Colourings features footballer Jack Leslie. Jack played for Plymouth Argyle and was the only black professional footballer in England at the time. In 1925 he was selected to play for England, but was later denied this opportunity because of the colour of his skin. Jack was a shining light in a footballing world where many didn't accept him and he's now been recognised with a statue outside Plymouth Argyle's Home Park stadium. Add some colour to the design below and if you'd like to share your artwork with other readers, email your colourings to: kidsalive@salvationarmy.org.uk. Make sure you write 'Black History Month Colouring' in the subject box and give us your full name, age and address. Alternatively you can post your colourings to: Your Space, Kids Alive! 101 Newington Causeway, London SE1 6BN. One last reminder, if you're sending by post remember to fill in the details below so we know who you are. We send a gift to everyone whose colouring we publish, so don't miss out!
