‘For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil.’

(1 Timothy 6:10)

‘Six days you shall labour and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God. On it you shall not do any work...’

(Deuteronomy 5:13-14)

‘Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, making his own people work for nothing, not paying them for their labour.’

(Jeremiah 22: 13)

‘Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters.’

(Colossians 3:23).

‘In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”’

(Acts 20:35)

‘Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.’

(Ephesians 4:28)

‘...let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.’

(Matthew 5:16)

‘The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.’

(Genesis 2:15)
