

Character and object	'I am' statement
 	I am a Salvation Army hut helper. I work in a hut in the army camp. I make sure soldiers have a nice place to rest in their free time. I give them lots of tea and food. I am here to help.
 	I am a Salvation Army ambulance driver. I work very close to where the fighting is. If soldiers are hurt I drive them in an ambulance to get medical help. I'll cheer them up by playing a jolly song or two! I am here to help.
 	I am a Salvation Army doughnut lassie. I work very close to where the fighting is. I make tea and food to cheer up the soldiers, but I don't have a kitchen. I have a tiny fold-up cooker, so I cook things that are quick but taste yummy. I am here to help.
 	I am a Salvation Army volunteer. I work in the hospital. I go round all the wounded soldiers and help to cheer them up. We talk, we sing, we write letters and I leave them little gifts. I am here to help.
 	I am a Salvation Army chaplain. I work where the fighting is, with the soldiers. I help them with their worries. I talk to them about God's love. I help them in any way I can, from praying to peeling potatoes! I am here to help.
 	I am a Salvation Army officer. I work in the UK. I run a home for soldiers. It is a safe place for soldiers and sailors to stay when they are travelling. I am here to help.
