

THE SALVATION ARMY SOLDIER'S REST

If you're hungry,
we meet you with
eggs and bacon

Or
doughnuts!

If you're
feeling down,
we cheer you up
with a song

If you're badly
wounded,
we give you a ride
in an ambulance

If you need help
making sense of it all,
we can sort it out
at a meeting

We meet
The Salvation Army
everywhere!

And if you make the
ultimate sacrifice,
we will look after
your resting place

Text based on an unidentified soldier of the Australian Imperial Forces, recorded by Lieut-Colonel Bond, The Army that Went with the Boys, 1919