

Celebrate the season

(Andrew Blyth)

No lyrics.

Majesty Resides

(Yvonne Field)

From the starkness of the stable, the light of Heaven shines;
In the drabness of the ordinary, God's precious
Son is born.
While eager hearts and childlike souls
anticipate this child;
In humble poor surroundings, Majesty resides!

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
God is with us,
Christ is born!
Gloria in excelsis Deo!
God is with us,
Jesus Christ is born!

2. To the shepherds on the hillside, the voice of angels came;
In the tedium of the ordinary, they spoke his glorious name.
To eager hearts and childlike souls, the Holy Child was born;
In humble, poor surroundings, They worshipped
Christ the Lord!

3. In the hearts of all who seek him, the light of Heaven shines;
For the struggles of the ordinary, He comes with grace divine.
For eager hearts and childlike souls anticipate this Child;
In humble poor surroundings, Majesty resides!
Yvonne Field

Christmas Crackers

(Chris Baker)

We're Christmas crackers, we love presents
and toys,
Some for the girls and some for the boys.
We love old Santa and Christmas trees too,
But most of all, Jesus, we really love you!

Celebrate! Clap your hands!
Celebrate! Stamp your feet!
Celebrate! Shout his name (Jesus!)
In case you've missed it, we'll tell you again!
(Most of all Jesus, we really love you!)

2. We're Christmas crackers, we love presents
and toys,
Some for the girls and some for the boys.
We love roast turkey and mistletoe too,
But most of all, Jesus, we really love you!

3. We're Christmas crackers, we love presents
and toys,
Some for the girls and some for the boys.
We love hot mince pies and Christmas pud too,
But most of all, Jesus, we really love you!
Chris Baker

