

What Does The Bible Say About Sharing?

‘And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.’ (Hebrews 13:16)

‘Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share.’ (1 Timothy 6:18)

‘Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.’” (Luke 6:38)

‘Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen;... is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter - when you see the naked, to clothe them, and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?’
(Isaiah 58:6,7)

‘For each one should carry their own load. Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor.’ (Galatians 6:5,6)

‘If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back.’
(Luke 6:29,30)
