INTRODUCTION/BACKGROUND

Other than Easter eggs, do you ever give presents at Easter? For some reason we don't seem to give gifts at Easter in the same way we do at Christmas. But surely there is no greater celebration for Christian people than the fact that Jesus died for our sins and rose again. He is alive!

While we may not give and receive presents with other people, Easter does bring God's people many gifts, and we are going to look briefly at just some of them in this session.)

ACTIVITIES

MAKE

Make simple Easter nest cakes using melted chocolate and cornflakes. Do a cooking demo for your group or make the cakes together. Perhaps suggest that each member makes two - one to eat and one to give to a friend or neighbour.

 Do a live demonstration or run an online cooking class.

POEM

Share the poem 'Easter Questions'. Perhaps a member has prepared a reading of it.

 Email the poem to members in advance.

QUIZ

Do an Easter quiz.

 Read questions out loud or share an online quiz.

SINGALONG

Ask members to share their favourite Easter song.

FUNDRAISE

Organise some Easter baking by your group, to sell to support the Helping-Hand Appeal.

 Check out the Helping-Hand Appeal for virtual fundraising ideas.

 Use share screen to share the image.

BIBLE READING/THOUGHT

 Hold up each gift to the webcam as you speak.

Easter gifts

We may not receive many Easter presents from family or friends this year, but God gives us Easter gifts that are of eternal value and significance.

Forgiveness

As we journey through Easter, we discover that the death of Jesus on the cross is part of God's eternal plan to bring about the redemption of our fallen world. Jesus, by his suffering and death, paid the price for our sin so that we can be forgiven. He told the disciples at the last supper that his blood would be poured out for the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:28).

Freedom from fear

The cross also brings us God's gift of freedom from fear. When the women went to the tomb that first Easter morning, the angel told them, 'Do not be afraid' (Matthew 28:5). When Jesus appeared, he also said, 'Do not be afraid' (Matthew 28:10). The command 'Do not be afraid' appears 366 times in the Bible - that's once for each day of the year and an extra one for a leap year!

Joy

We live in a world where it can often feel that there is not much to smile about. However, when Jesus rose again he brought us the gift of joy - joy that is not simply the absence of sorrow, but rather the joy that comes from God. A joy that enriches our lives, enabling us to feel secure in his love.

When the risen Lord appeared to his disciples, Luke 24:41 tells us that at first, 'they still did not believe because of joy and amazement'. However, when the truth sank in, their overwhelming grief was replaced by overwhelming joy. I wonder if people will see a face of joy when they look at us this Easter?

Peace

Easter brings us the gift of God's peace. The events of that first Easter morning were quite turbulent: an earthquake; stones rolling; soldiers shaking with fear; an angel appearing; people running around ... and yet Jesus said, 'Peace be with you.' Many people try to attain peace by their own efforts, but true peace is God's gift to us that allows us to face our tomorrows with calm assurance and confidence. 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you' (John 14:27).

Eternal life

It wasn't just Jesus who was given new life on the first Easter day, but it is also God's most precious gift to us all. Colossians 3:1-4 says, 'Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.'

Connect

Because Jesus is raised from the dead, we have the promise of eternal life with him and the blessed assurance that one day we will see him face to face and live for ever in his glorious presence!

Mission

Easter is a gift to be shared! It is not just for the Church - it is for everyone and we need to share it. The women who went to the empty tomb did not keep the news to themselves - they had to share it, and were told by the angel in Matthew 28:7 to 'Go quickly and tell his disciples.' Who will we tell this Easter?

As we celebrate this Easter, may our hearts be filled with love and thanksgiving for the wonderful gifts of Easter that are given by God to us all.

Easter Questions

Would I have sung hosanna as he rode along the way,
And strewn his road with branches in the dry heat of the day?
Would I have cheered and shouted as his donkey passed me by,
Proclaiming him as Lord and King as loud as I could cry?

Would I have championed Jesus as he cleansed God's house of prayer,
Or hid away embarrassed at this thing that he did dare?
Would I have watched astounded as the Temple courts he cleared,
And joined in with the traders and the priests as they all jeered?

Would I have heard his teaching with an open mind and heart,
Or would I, like the Pharisees, have questioned every part?
Would I have tried to test him asking questions aimed to trick,
And spread untruthful rumours 'til the lies began to stick?

Would I have let the Servant-King stoop down and wash my feet,
Or understood his blessing as he broke the bread to eat?
Would I have been the one who could the Lord of all betray,
Or fall asleep while waiting when he's asked me just to pray?

When Jesus was arrested would I too have drawn my sword,
Or would I have been tempted to deny him as my Lord?
Would I have shouted 'Crucify!' and spat upon his face,
And watched the King of Glory as he hung there in disgrace?

Could I have crowned him with those thorns or nailed him to that tree?
Would I have seen that it was love that held him there, for me?
But when he cried, 'Forgive them, for they know not what they do',
He knew it was the only way to save me and save you.
