HOPE

 Isaiah 9:2-7 A new day is coming

Here are some ideas and activities you could do as a family

Create

Have a go at making your own Advent wreath. You will definitely need a grown-up to help you with this.

Discuss

Chat with your family about what life was like 30 years ago.

What were phones and TVs like? What were popular toys, cars or clothes? What was the music or dances? What were the big news stories?

What might life be like 30 years from now? Which pop stars or movie stars might still be popular? What might daily life be like? What are your hopes for the future?

Share

In the session you made a promise jar/envelope. Share the Bible promise with your family each day through Advent in December.

Quiz

Find someone in your house who has watched all three of the Back to the Future films. See if they can answer the Beano Back to the Future quiz questions.

Remember

Share with someone in your house what you have discovered about prophets. Explain to them what a prophecy is and the promises God made through Isaiah. If you're struggling to remember, then Isaiah 9:2-7 in the Bible might jog your memory.
