

People who experience homelessness have a drink or drug problem	People who experience homelessness choose to leave home
People who experience homelessness are happy living on the streets	People who experience homelessness can have a job
People who experience homelessness are only men	People who experience homelessness need help
People who experience homelessness are easy to spot because of how they look	People who experience homelessness do not live as long
People who experience homelessness must have done something wrong	People who experience homelessness are important
AGREE	DISAGREE

