

LYRIC SHEET

VERSE 1

In this life it's clear to see We need to get along In this life people Need to feel like they belong

So, to make sure that it's happening
To show others that we care
We treat everyone with kindness
Always trying to be fair

CHORUS

Whenever people meet you
Listen to their point of view
Give them respect that they're due
Because it's right
Let's all be friendly, polite
Let's all be caring and kind
And then people just might
Respect you too

In this life sometimes it's right
To put others first
To show them that they're valued
To show them what they're worth

So to make sure that it's happening
Think about how they may feel
And make sure that your decisions
Show compassion that is real

CHORUS

Whenever people meet you
Listen to their point of view
Give them respect that they're
due
Because it's right
Let's all be friendly, polite
Let's all be caring and kind
And then people just might
Respect you too
