

RIGHT TRACKS YOU ARE YOU

LYRIC SHEET

VERSE 1

Why would you wanna go making people
feel like they've gotta be ashamed?
Why would you wanna go making
feel they should be afraid?
Why would you wanna go making
sad about who they are?
Why would you wanna go making
feel like they can't go far?

If we're all the same the world's a boring place
And I don't think that you or I should change
So let's make a choice, lift up your voice
And let the whole world know what we say

CHORUS

*Cos you are you, and I am me That's exactly how it should be
Lets celebrate diversity everyone!
Cos if you're big or if you're small
Just like me, or not at all There's something I must say to you and it's true
I'm happy you are you*

VERSE 2

Why don't we all start making people feel like they belong?
Why don't we all start asking people if they'd like to tag along?
Why don't we all start building people up instead of knocking them down?
Why don't we all start making people smile instead of frown?

If we're all the same the world's a
boring place
And I don't think that you or I should
change
So let's make a choice lift up your
And let the whole world know what we say

CHORUS

*Cos you are you, and I am me
That's exactly how it should be
Lets celebrate diversity everyone!
Cos if you're big or if you're small
Just like me, or not at all
There's something I must say to you
and it's true
I'm happy you are you*

I'm happy you are you x3
