

Welcome to Together 2025

We're excited to share this special weekend with you!

Together 2025 is about every generation (people of all ages) celebrating together, and spending time with God. We hope that you'll enjoy these different ways of connecting with God, and the people you're here with.

Fill in the Gaps

Fill in the blanks of the Bible verse that will be read during the meeting. If you don't hear it, maybe you could look it up yourself in Matthew 9:35-38.

Jesus went through all the 1._____ and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the 2._____ news of the kingdom and healing every disease and illness. When he saw the 3._____, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like 4._____ without a 5._____. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the 6._____ are few. Ask the 7._____ of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his 8._____ field.'

Matthew 9:35-38 (NIV)

Thinking Time...

Often special things like objects, traditions or favourite recipes are passed down from generation to generation. Stories of God are also special and shared from one generation to the next. What do you think is important to tell people about God?

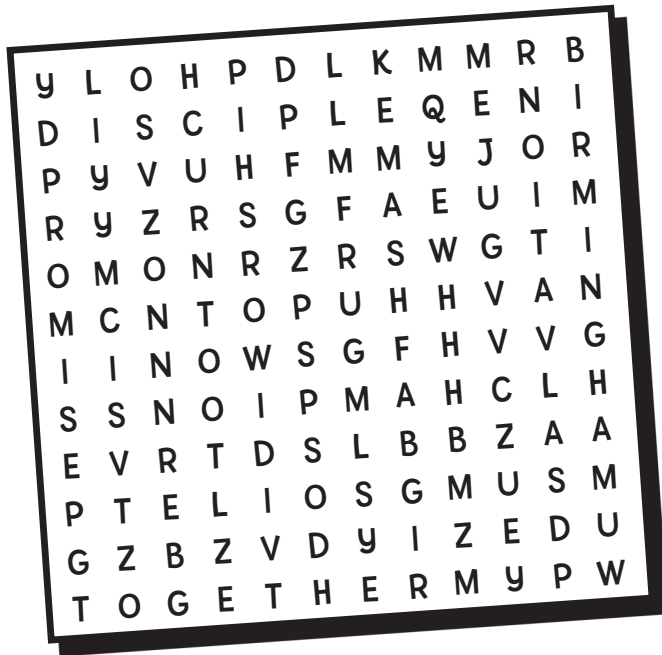

Commissioning spots!

There are lots of things that you might see or hear in a commissioning meeting. Some are in the grid below. Tick them off when you see or hear them.

| | | | |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------|--|---------------------------------------|
| Someone praying | A Salvation Army flag | Everyone standing up | The new officers singing a song |
| Someone saying the word 'generation' | Someone older than you | People clapping | Someone telling their story |
| A band playing music | Someone reading the Bible | Everyone singing a song | Someone doing a Salvation Army salute |
| Someone younger than you | Photos of people on the screen | The new officers making their promise to God | People praying together |
