Sentence ordering

LO: To sequence the story.

✂ —

Lumi, the little star, sparkled with joy as he reflected on everything he had seen.

✂ —

Each of the kings bowed as they gave their precious gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to baby Jesus.

✂ —

It was a chilly winter's night when Lumi appeared in the night sky.

✂ —

The new star was shining on a baby boy lying in the animals' food box, with his parents smiling at him.

✂ —

Angels appeared, singing about a special baby that had been born.

✂ —

There were lots of people travelling on the road that night, including a man and woman with a donkey.

✂ —

Lumi felt afraid by the brightness, and he could see the shepherds below were covering their eyes in fear too.

✂ —

Then Lumi spotted more travellers on the road, faraway to the east, also following the light of the new star.

✂ —

Suddenly, Lumi noticed more bright light on the hillside just outside of town.

✂ —

Lumi was fascinated by the new star and wanted to know why it was shining.

✂ —

Sentence ordering

LO: To sequence the story.

✂ –

Lumi, the little star, sparkled with joy as …

✂ –

Each of the kings bowed as they …

✂ –

It was a chilly winter's night when …

✂ –

The new star was shining on a baby boy …

✂ –

Angels appeared, singing about …

✂ –

There were lots of people travelling …

✂ –

Lumi felt afraid by the brightness, and …

✂ –

Then Lumi spotted more travellers on the road …

✂ –

Suddenly, Lumi noticed more bright light …

✂ –

Lumi was fascinated by the new star and …

✂ –