VALENTINE'S DAY DOT-TO-DOT

Today (14 February) is Valentine's Day, which means that it's the perfect time to celebrate love! One of the best things about love is the way that it connects people from different walks of life. Because of the love that you feel, you might be best pals with your grandparents (even though they're so much older than you) or have friends at school who have completely different interests. We're all unique, but love brings us together. To celebrate Valentine's Day, why not complete this dot-to-dot and then add a splash of colour? If you'd like to share your artwork with other readers, email your dot-to-dot to: kidsalive@salvationarmy.org.uk. Make sure you write 'Valentine's Day Dot-to-Dot' in the subject box and give us your full name, age and address. Alternatively you can post your artwork to: Your Space, Kids Alive! 1 Champion Park, London SE5 8FJ. One last reminder, if you're sending by post remember to fill in the details below so we know who you are. We send a gift to everyone whose colouring we publish, so don't miss out!
