

CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION

CALLING ALL YOUNG ARTISTS! THE KIDS ALIVE! CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION IS BACK!

This year's competition has a brand-new prize up for grabs – £150-worth of STABILO goodies – perfect for all your arty creations! The winning design will also feature on the cover of the 12 December issue of Kids Alive! and be added to The Salvation Army's collection on the e-card website Don't Send Me a Card. Plus, four runners-up will each win a year's subscription to Kids Alive!

Schools are welcome to submit students' designs, but each entry must include the child's name, age and a parent or school contact (name and email). You can send designs all together, as long as each design has the required details on the back.

To enter this competition, send your Christmas card design, full name, age, address and parent's or carer's email address to: Christmas Card Competition, Kids Alive! 1 Champion Park, London SE5 8FJ. Please don't fold your design and make sure you send it in an A4 envelope. You can also enter by emailing your design to kidsalive@salvationarmy.org.uk, but please make sure it's a good quality scan or photo. The competition closes on Friday 27 November so grab your supplies and let your creativity shine!

For more information on this competition, check out tsa.link/ka-christmas-card