Pin the Tail on Amos!

"Oh, crumbs and carrots!" Amos has lost his tail. Can you help him?

You will need

- ✓ A big drawing of Amos with no tail
- ✓ A tail for each player (next page)
- ✓ Sticky tack or tape
- ✓ A scarf for a blindfold
- ✓ A pen

How to play

1. Draw Amos, without his tail, on a flip chart or big sheet of paper. Stick it on the wall at the children's height.
2. Cut out a tail for each player. Write their name on it and put sticky tack on the top.
3. Put on the blindfold, spin around gently three times and face Amos.
4. Walk forward and stick the tail where you think it goes!
5. Leave every tail in place. When everyone has had a turn, the closest tail wins. Hee-haw!

Tip: little ones can skip the spin, or play without the blindfold.
